With each new level, you get the option to choose from a lot of vehicles that you get completely free with hill climbing racing cheat app. It is too important to choose the best vehicle that can hit the longest distance on all levels. Levels and some levels of preferred vehicles. Countryside: This is the most basic level of hill climbing racing and almost any vehicle can do well. When you hit the 2000m mark on your misla, there are some tricky hills that are difficult to break your neck. Desert and Arctic: Traction is a key element of these two levels. Monster trucks, tanks and trucks are the best choice for deserts. However, for arctic, dune buggy, quad bike and snow bike, it can cover the longest distance. Highways: This level is about fuel and you need to choose a more fuel-efficient vehicle. The fuel barrel does not appear every 50 meters. So, a car or a Kiddy Express can be the best choice for this level of long-distance stretching. Sequel Hill Climb Racing 2 was released in November 2016 and is equally popular in prequels.
